PHILOSOPHY

Music lessons should be fun and engaging! My approach to teaching privately is to apply my formal education (classical background), along with my general enthusiasm for and experience with all types of music, to assist my students to play, sing, and write music that makes them feel good and allows them to express themselves creatively.

All musical styles are taught - from Classical to Folk, Pop to Jazz. All ages and skill levels are welcome! Ultimately, I want to help students to achieve their goals whether it is learning to play for enjoyment, self-expression, scholastic achievement (i.e. Royal Conservatory Examination Preparation) or competition (i.e. Stratford Kiwanis Music Festival).

HOW TO REACH ME

I can be reached either by email: laramacmillanmusic@gmail.com or phone 519 301 3160. My studio hours are generally 9am to 9pm, Monday to Friday and 9am to 5pm on Saturday. If I am not able to speak with you directly please do not hesitate to leave a voice mail message and I will return your call as soon as I am able.

RATES AND PAYMENT

Rates for lessons are $26/30min, $39/45min, and $52/hour.

Payment is made with postdated cheques made out to Lara MacMillan. The studio year runs from September to June and a calculation based on number of lessons during the year is made and ten monthly cheques of equal value are expected upon registration.

Should a student withdraw prior to the end of year (June) I ask that two weeks notice be given and then all unused cheques and any outstanding balance will be returned in full.

If you are unable to make your lesson for any reason, I ask that you let me know as soon as possible. Students will be charged for the full price of lessons cancelled less than 24 hours in advance of their scheduled time.

SUMMER LESSONS

I am available by appointment in July and August for lessons and coaching.
